Entity & Hex Removal

Write the below script at night in your own hand writing on plain paper for 10 consecutive days, burning it at the end with the intention of releasing any hexes, negative people, energy or entities from your life. It is important to fill your heart with love and let go of fear in the process. Trust all is being taken care of by your angels!

Please replace 'Divine' with your most favoured term for the god/goddess of your choosing e.g. God, Archangel, Holy Spirit, Divine Energy, Spirit Guides etc.

Write This Script:

To {insert persons name where applicable} and all enemies; I am full of Divine love and I forgive you for all your indiscretions against me, my family, and my business. From this point on, I break all ties and connections with you that are sending me harm. From this point on, you have no power or control over me, my life, health, family, business and my family's lives.

Your attacks against me are now being replaced by powerful positive blessings, divine love and pure white light energy. Any harmful negative energies or entities in and around me, I know send away, directing them towards the universal healing light to be taken care of by my Gaurdian Angels.

Amen, Aho, And so it is.
